

Rudi Dierckx

Short Biography:

Rudi Dierckx obtained his MD in Brussels, his PhD in Antwerp, and his MBA in Ghent (Belgium). He was nominated full Professor in Nuclear Medicine in 2002 at the Ghent University (UG) and after his move to the Netherlands in 2005 at the University of Groningen (RUG). Since January 1st 2005 he is appointed Head of the Department of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging (NMMI) at the University Medical Center Groningen (UMCG). He actively participates in the joint quest of the team in Groningen for excellence in patient care, teaching, training, research, and societal impact. In 2020 he was voted by the national delegates of the EANM member states to be President-Elect 2021-2022 and presently is the EANM President 2023-2024.